

SK MILK MARKETING BOARD

UPDATE

December 15, 2010

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE – BLAINE McLEOD

The year is rapidly drawing to a close and as our thoughts turn to Christmas and the family celebrations that will soon be upon us, we are again reminded of the many blessings that our industry affords us. Although we continue to face many challenges on a daily basis, we do indeed have a system of supply management that is the envy of the world. We will continue to face opposition in maintaining our system but we are positioned well to defend and enhance how we operate in supplying our domestic market. In the last six months there has been a renewed emphasis on considering what a national milk pool would look like and how it could help us defend and support supply management. We need to be involved in these discussions with a mindset that looks to the national good but never forgets the challenges and unique situation of our provincial perspective. In the months ahead much more will be said in regards to this topic and we will endeavor to keep our producers informed and involved in the process.

One of the most pressing issues that our province and country faces at this point in time is the need to increase our supply of milk. As has been reported in the past, Saskatchewan has reached the lower production limit and is losing a significant amount of production credits. We must work together to rectify this problem. If you have the space in your barn for additional cows, the economic returns that would be generated by using that space are well documented. This year's feed quality has created significant challenges in maintaining levels of production that we are accustomed to. The underproduction cycle we are in is going to last for the foreseeable future and the need to milk more cows is urgent. Secondly we must ensure that the available underproduction credits are put in the hands of producers that have the capacity to produce the milk. Your Board has lifted the limits on the amount of underproduction credits that can be transferred until March. If there is not a significant response to that initiative there are additional measures that could be used that would accomplish the goal but may not be as producer friendly as we would like. The message is that we have a responsibility to supply the market and at the present point in time we are not doing that. Butter stocks are continuing to decline and nobody wants to see our country have to import butter to balance our requirements. Action needs to be taken and we have every confidence that we will respond to this challenge.

Many of you have undoubtedly heard of the devastating fire that destroyed the milking herd of Berend Logtenberg and Jeanet Drost and their family on December 8th. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family at this time and every effort will be made by the SMMB to assist this family during this difficult time. Please take note of the inclusion in this newsletter of how we can help meet the immediate needs of the family. Your generous support will be very meaningful as this very difficult challenge is faced.

Thank you for taking the time to read this update and we look forward to hearing from you in regards to any concerns you may have. On behalf of my family may I wish you a very Merry Christmas and all the blessings of the season. May you be able to take the time to enjoy with family and friends the many blessings of this Holiday season.

QUOTA EXCHANGE

The market-clearing price established for the December, 2010 Quota Exchange was $25,551.00. The results of the Quota Exchange are outlined in the following Table.

The next Quota Exchange will be held on January 17, 2011. All offers to sell and bids to purchase quota through the Quota Exchange must be received at the SMMB office by midnight, January 6, 2011. The SMMB recommends that offers and bids be submitted well in advance of the deadline date to ensure adequate time for corrections, if necessary.

Just a reminder to producers that when making bids on the Quota Exchange, the price on offers to sell quota is the minimum price that the producer is prepared to accept for that quota. Only if the market-clearing price is equal to or greater than the producer's minimum price will that producer qualify for participation in the Exchange. Conversely, the price on offers to purchase quota is the maximum price that the producer is prepared to pay for that quota. Only if the market-clearing price is equal to or less than the producer's maximum price will that producer qualify for participation in the Exchange.

The clearing price is set at the price where the smallest difference exists between the accumulated volume offered for sale and the accumulated volume bid to purchase.

Producers are not allowed to accumulate negative production credits (kgs of butterfat) in excess of -20 days. LOST OPPORTUNITY occurs when a producer's negative production credits exceed -20 days. For every kg of butterfat that becomes lost opportunity, producers have lost approximately $20/kg in gross revenue potential. In November, 33 producers had 25,200.13 kgs of lost opportunity, which resulted in lost gross revenue potential of approximately $504,000 or, on average, $15,272 per producer for those 33 producers.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE 2011 DAIRY YOUTH AMBASSADOR

By Anita Medl

Miss Kala Cairns brought her commitment, eagerness and enthusiasm to Dairy Farmers of Saskatchewan during her role as Dairy Youth Ambassador. We extend our sincere appreciation for the dedication she put forward and wish her all the best for happiness and success in the future.

The 2011 Dairy Youth Ambassador, Miss Robin Klassen, was announced at Dairy Farmers of Saskatchewan Annual General Meeting & Conference in Saskatoon, on November 8, 2010. Robin is the daughter of and Phil and Patti Klassen of Herbert, and currently is attending the University of Regina, to pursue a degree in Social Work.

Growing up on the dairy farm, Robin had many responsibilities, including the tasks of cleaning the parlour, pressure washing the floors and machinery, or better known as the “swamper”. Joining the 4-H club not only did she learn to take care and groom cattle; she also learnt how important the dairy, beef and farming industry is to this country.

Robin is looking forward to the opportunity to explore this wonderful province, as well meet the people of Saskatchewan. She will be joining the staff at Saskatchewan Milk Marketing Board based in Regina and travel throughout the province attending a variety of events and promoting Canadian milk on behalf of Saskatchewan Milk Marketing Board.

Should your community be hosting an upcoming event and you would like the Dairy Youth Ambassador and Dairyanna to participate, please contact Anita Medl at Saskatchewan Milk Marketing Board @ 949-6999, fax to 949-2605 or email dfs.medl@sasktel.net. We will do our best to include all requests; however last year's schedule and timing of all events will be taken into consideration.

Frequently Asked Questions

A list has been compiled of questions most frequently asked by producers.

What is the maximum amount of transfer credits that I can transfer out in a 12 month period?

Effective September, 2010, to March, 2011 the 15% transfer out credit limit in a rolling 12 month period has been suspended. There is no limit on the % of transfer credits that can be transferred out over the next seven months; however, the restrictions on the amount that can be transferred out on a monthly basis still apply. (REFER TO THE NEXT QUESTION)

What is the maximum amount of transfer credits that I can transfer out in a month?

The maximum transfer credits a producer can transfer out in a month are equal to what the producer's cumulative under position was in the previous month. You can only transfer out to a cumulative position of zero credits.

What is the maximum amount of transfer credits that I can transfer in?

There is no limit to the amount of credits that can be transferred in within a rolling 12 month period. The only limit when transferring in credits would be to not drop below the -30 credit day limit (-20 credit days effective the end of November) at the end of each month or you will have lost the opportunity to carry-forward those credits to produce that milk in the future.

Will my credit position change on August 1, 2010 if I was in a pre-fill position with 4m dollars being withheld and do not achieve a cumulative credit position of 0 days or less by July 31, 2010, thereby forfeiting those 4m dollars?

No, your credit position will not change; you are still responsible for dealing with your positive credits.

What happens to my negative credits that I have accumulated if I exit the industry (sell out)? What if I stop shipping milk before the quota transfer date?

When selling out, your daily quota (TPQ) is transferred to the purchasing producer using the Quota Transfer Form. Accumulated negative transfer credits are transferred using the Transfer Credit Form and may or may not be transferred to the producer purchasing your daily quota depending on the deal that you have struck. The SMMB will calculate the final available negative credits accumulated.

If a producer ceases shipments at least one full calendar month prior to the quota transfer date, that producer may transfer 95% of the estimated negative transfer credits that would accumulate in the month that no milk was shipped for an effective date of the first of the same month. The final available negative credits, the remaining 5%, that would have accumulated prior to the transfer date will be calculated by the Board and be available for transfer.

For example, if a producer ceases shipping milk on August 31st with an effective sale date of October 1st, 95% of the estimated negative credits that will be accumulated in the month of September may be transferred for a September 1st effective date. In early October, the Board will calculate the final negative credit total and those negative credits may be transferred to another producer at that time.

What is the deadline for transferring negative credits if I exit the industry?

Producers who exit the industry will have the opportunity to transfer negative credits to other producers for a period of two months.

For example, if a producer exits the industry effective September 1st, that producer will have the opportunity to transfer any negative credits for the months of September and October. Any credits not transferred after that date will be lost. The deadline for transferring credits is the 20th of each month, therefore the deadline to transfer credits to another producer would be October 20th.

If my TPQ is reduced, either through a quota sale or quota reduction, and this causes me to exceed the +10 days cumulative position, what happens?

If a producer exceeds the +10 day limit as a direct result of a reduction in TPQ, that producer's TPQ will be capped at +10 days. No penalty will be assigned for exceeding the +10 day limit under this circumstance; however overproduction in the future will be penalized.

Are positive credit transfers permitted in farm splits?

No, positive credits cannot be transferred to another farm under any circumstance.

What is the deadline for transfer credits?

The transfer credit deadline for any month is by midnight of the 20th. For example any transfer credit forms in the Board Office on or before midnight of October 20th will be effective October 1st.

Where can I find producers wanting to transfer credits?

The Board will maintain a web page with producers wanting to transfer credits in or out. It will be updated on a daily basis as requests come into the office. Producers who do not have internet access can call the Board and have the information faxed to them.

Producers wanting their name posted on the web page can contact the Board. Postings will be dated and kept on the website for 2 months. It is up to the producer to have their name reposted after the 2 months or removed if they fill their requirement before the 2 month period is up.

INCENTIVE DAY CREDITS- Do incentive day credits change my cumulative position?

No. Incentive days credits do not change your cumulative position. In months where incentive day credits are available, first you fill your quota, then, if you are over your monthly quota the additional kilograms are applied against the incentive day credits. If your production does not exceed your monthly quota allocation you will not be able to use the incentive day credits.

You must use the incentive day credits in the month that they are available.
