

Ninth Annual Dairy Info Day

January 22, 2020

SaskMilk, Ministry of Agriculture and the University of Saskatchewan

Saskmilk

Ministry of Agriculture

 UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

Ninth Annual Dairy Info Day

Wednesday January 22, 2020

Brian King Centre, Warman, SK

9:15 Registration and Coffee

9:45 Welcome and opening comments by Chair of the SaskMilk Board, and Head of the Department of Animal and Poultry Science

Dairy Advisory Board and Rayner Dairy Research and Teaching Facility

9:50 Report from Dairy Advisory Board – Denise Coghill

9:55 Report on Rayner operations and how we dealt with a Salmonella dublin outbreak in the University of Saskatchewan dairy herd – Jay Olyniuk, Manager, Rayner Dairy Research and Teaching Facility

Presentations

10:20 Salmonella dublin: What dairy producers need to know – Dr. Donald Sockett, Wisconsin Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory, University of Wisconsin-Madison

11:00 Salmonella dublin surveillance program in Saskatchewan – Dr. Wendy Wilkins, Disease Surveillance Veterinarian, SK Ministry of Agriculture

11:30 Undergraduate thesis project: A survey of robot farms in western Canada – Julie-Anne Lavoie

11:45 Undergraduate thesis project: Reproductive management in dairy cows – Claire Bertens

12:00 – 1:00 Lunch provided by SaskMilk

1:00 Canadian Agricultural Partnership- Program Opportunities- Luke Jorgensen, Range Management Extension Specialist, Saskatchewan Ministry of Agriculture

1:15 Reducing the prevalence of enteric and respiratory disease in dairy calves – Dr. Donald Sockett, Wisconsin Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory, University of Wisconsin-Madison

1:55 Update on dietary inclusion of whole-crop faba bean silage in dairy cattle diets – performance results – Victor Guevara, PhD candidate, Department of Animal and Poultry Science, University of Saskatchewan

2:10 Low feed intake: a major risk factor for ruminal acidosis – Dr. Greg B. Penner, Department of Animal and Poultry Science, University of Saskatchewan

2:25 Cow comfort: not just for farmers – Emily Morabito, Extension Services Coordinator, SaskMilk

2:40 Closing remarks – Denise Coghill, SaskMilk